

STOP. COLLABORATE & LISTEN

How many times have you voiced your opinion and someone has agreed with you?

How many times have you voiced your opinion and someone has disagreed with you?

Have you ever made a suggestion to someone and they have taken it onboard?

Have you ever made a suggestion to someone and they have not taken it onboard, but instead worked with you to develop your idea into something even better?

How does it feel when these things happen?

If you like the feeling of people valuing your opinion or acting on your suggestions and you are able to respect people even when they disagree with you or are able to work with others to add ideas together and create positive actions then

The Voice: Stop.Collaborate&Listen is for you!
